

Job Networking Group starts in Decatur

By Stephanie Whitlow

September 10, 2014

Decatur, AL – The Decatur Public Library will be the location for the second meeting of a free Job Networking Group. This group meets the third Tuesday of each month from 5:30pm to 7:00pm. During the first half hour, the group is encouraged to network with fellow members over light refreshments. Networking will be followed by a presentation from local Human Resource representatives and Career Counselors from local colleges. Participants are also encouraged to bring their resumes for onsite reviews and feedback.

About the Mission of the Job Networking Group

The Job Networking Group provides an open environment where job seekers in the area can access employment leads, share information, network and get support during their job search. Participation in the Job Networking Group empowers the job seeker to find work through access to local resources and by allowing them to become actively involved with their community.

Contact

The Job Networking Group has Facebook and LinkedIn pages as well as a Google Group where job openings are sent out weekly. To be added to these online groups or to get more information, please email jobnetworkinggroupmc@gmail.com.